

Stardust

by Jodie Boyle

A shooting star lights up the sky
Make a wish
So many requests to choose
How shall I ever decide?
The moon and The Milky Way are my friends this night
Ancient, wise, all-knowing companions
I close my eyes
Feel stardust sprinkled in my hair
Away I go...

Sweet summer breeze
Carry my heart across the seas
Send my love to family and friends who are far away
Yet stay close, always near, in thought, prayer and dreams
Let them picture my face, feel my embrace
Til next we meet

Owl, raven, crow
Messengers, guardians, protectors
Allow me to share your flight
You know my spirit yearns to be free
I trust you will be with me
On life's great adventures
Shall we journey together?

Twinkling stars
Majestic moon
Please shine your light on my soul
Be the lamp of love in my heart
You give me passion, inspiration
A fire which burns so bright
I am illuminated
Thank you for your beautiful, glowing gifts

A smile tugs at my lips
I go back inside
Heart light
I feel at peace
All is right with the world
Take flight, little wishes
Sweet dreams
God bless
Goodnight
