

EVERLASTING HEAVEN

by Mandy Hawthorn

*Heaven is only a step away
When you take me in your arms
The everlasting peace you bring
I feel safe away from harm
I've told you I love you before, I know
But this time it means much more
How can anyone know our closeness
Those up Above would only scorn
I would never give up my life with you
Not for any wishes I could charm
There's only one man for me
And I'm right here in his arms
No one will ever part us
Not while we lay here like this
I could stay beside you, forever
And feel this wondrous bliss
Close your eyes, my darling
Don't worry about what's past
Sleep now while we have our chance
Now we're as one at last.*
