

BENEATH THE SURFACE

by Mary Rose Kelly

We all can look amidst the lie of the life

We put on for others to find

Another life hiding....

Beneath the Surface

Even when others can't see our secrets

Our hurts, our pain....

We can feel them....

Beneath the Surface

Tell a friend all is well, all the Unsuspecting others, too. They'll Never know what's concealed....

Beneath the Surface

She met one who knows her very soul, senses

All her secret pain, smells her fear,

Tastes her love....

Beneath the Surface
