

WITHIN ME

by Rosemarie Hauer

(from Buns and Roses)

Within me
there is a night sky
full of shining stars
and gentle winds
that touch the silence of my soul with tender hands

Within me
there is a perfect world full of dancing lights
and smiling eyes
that caress the aloneness of my spirit with their warmth

Within me
there is a river
full of rainbows and moonbeams that soothe my yearning heart with their sparkling beauty

Within me
there is the shining mirror of your love.
you heal my incompleteness by recognizing and understanding who and what I am
and by embracing it

Within me
there is everything

Within me
there is you
