

Beauty and the Beast Tidbit (100 words)

Cussing the Inanimate

Hi Chandler, little brother,

Wet to the skin, I travelled from St. Malo to Vivier-sur-Mer, where I camped on a campsite near the salt meadows.

To warm up, I decided to take a long shower. I gathered my stuff, went to the baths, undressed, inserted the special riffled token and soaped up.

Fully-lathered, I was fully enjoying my luxury shower - when the water stopped. In that state, I was completely unable to search for, much less find and insert, another token. I could only try to wipe the lather away.

Lots of soapy love,

Devin
