

Beauty and the Beast Tidbit (100 words)

Saint Malo

Hi Chandler, little brother,

What do you think was the reason for a police-blocked road and a mighty concourse full of people?

The Saint Malo historical town wall borders the beach, which is part of the European emerald coast. Here the tides average about 13yd(12m).

Today, there was a super high tide of about 15-16yd(14-14.5m). A legion of people wearing oilskin jackets were standing there, waiting to take a shower, as the white horses broke against the wall, spreading their cold spray over all.

A thrilling experience, I can tell you...

Lots of love you and the old man as well,

Devin
