

Beauty and the Beast Tidbit (100 words)

by Ulrike

Unbelievable, but true

Hi Chandler, little brother,

I awakened today with a stiff and aching back. My air mattress had gone flat. So I did some extensions and stretching exercises.

The sun was shining down on sublime scenery. It was low tide, then suddenly a vessel went by – on dry land. I couldn't believe my eyes! It was on wheels, under its own power.

Later that day, I walked through Vivier-sur-Mer. The regular traffic, it seemed, was both regular cars and boats on wheels!

Lots of love to you both, and the old man as well.

Yours,

Devin
