

Gifts And Blessings

by Jodie Boyle

If I could
I would write you a love song
The notes being a melody from my heart
A famous author
Penning poems
Attempting to put into words, all that you mean to me

Perhaps an actress
Every love scene or romantic moment on screen
With each line, I would speak only to your heart
Loving embraces for you, and you alone
A quilter...
Sewing each stitch, connecting the patchwork pieces with love and care

Shall I go into space?
For I love you to the moon and back
See me smiling down at you from the Heavens
Catching a glimpse of brilliant blue eyes
As the Earth glides by

Alas, I am not a writer
Need to enrol in acting school
Cannot thread a needle
Fly only in my dreams

Will you accept instead...
My company
Open arms, a hand to hold
My smile
Hello hugs and farewell kisses
Roses, chocolates, candle glow
Moments, memories, magic
For you give these gifts and blessings to me, dearest
My mirror image
Greatest treasure
My heart's delight
