Stunt double for Ron Perlman (Vincent)

Many thanks to Mic for sharing his memories with us!

To the best of my memory I did half of the second season and all the third. John Meier was the stunt coordinator.

It was fun stunt doubling Ron Perlman.. because to be big enough to be the beast I got to wear for hockey pads under the wardrobe.

Ron was a really cool guy and I doubled him later on Sons of Anarchy doing fights and riding the motorcycle.

I remember an episode where I had to run through a wall of fire doubling Ron. It was late at night, around 2:30 in the morning. I fell asleep waiting for them to do the stunt. John Meier woke me up and said 'How can you sleep when you're about to be lit on fire?'. I said with all the stuff on there's no way I can get hurt. We both had a good laugh.
