

30th Anniversary Special Interview

Terrance Ellis Actor

1) What was your first impression of the series production?

It felt like a Shakespearean town.

2) Was there anything you wished you had known before you walked on the set?

I wish I had known more about the younger version of me.

3) What surprised you most about your role in the production?

The depths of my characters talent.

4) After 30 years, what is your fondest memory of the production?

The set was magical.

5) Which episode did you personally find the most challenging? Why?

"In the Forests of the Night", because I got shot.

6) Which episode do you think was the best? Why?

Chamber Music because the sound of the piano rang in my head constantly.

7) From your perspective, what has changed on sets since 1987?

Sets are more generic.

8) What experience did you find most rewarding?

Conversations with Linda, Ron, and Roy.

9) Looking back, what do you wish had happened differently?

I wish I was in more episodes.

10) If a sequel were possible, what would be most important?

The underground tunnels would be expanded to include more people from above ground.
